Shipping and Handling (We may require a seven day waiting period prior to shipping your first order, if paying by check or money order)

Continental US: We will ship via UPS, USPS and FedEx if that is preferred by the customer and the customer will pay for actual shipping charges. Can also supply freight options for orders over 10,000 QTY. Customers may also schedule their own carrier.

International Orders (outside US): All our customers will pay actual cost of postal service shipping and tariffs for international orders. We typically ship via USPS International Priority Mail but can also ship via UPS upon request. Customers may also provide their own carrier account information for FedEx/UPS.

Rush Orders

Our products are made to order and usually ship within 5 working days depending on size of order. Quantities of 250 or more may require more lead time. If you have a specific date for when you need our products, please let us know in advance and we will work to meet your schedule requirements. We welcome blanket purchase orders and ask that you provide us with a schedule for regular/routine delivery.

Backorders and Auto-Shipments

Since our products are made to order, we will keep making and sending the bags until the order QTY has been fulfilled. If you'd like to set up an auto-shipment, please let us know the QTY that you'd like to order and the frequency you'd like to receive them (e.g. 500 square nylon nut milk bags every month.) This is helpful for us to sew ahead of time and ship at a faster rate to you. (Please provide a blanket purchase order to ensure that your bags are scheduled for manufacturing.)
